

2016 UCSF COMPLIANCE WEEK IS HERE!

The UCSF Compliance Week Partners are once again hosting Compliance Week!

These compliance departments have planned a week full of informative and entertaining activities in order to spread awareness about the importance of compliance and ethics at UCSF.

This year, the Compliance Week theme is Building a Culture of Compliance. The festivities include a Panel Discussion, Compliance Fair, Virtual Quiz Bowl and an Essay Contest. Simultaneously we will give Compliance Week points for participation and award prizes to the individual and the department with the most points!

For questions, please contact the Compliance Week Planning Committee at ComplianceWeek2016@ucsf.edu.

2016 UCSF Compliance Week Agenda

Monday, October 24th

Compliance Week Kick-Off Panel Discussion

Time: 11:30am – 1pm

Location: Mission Bay - Helen Diller Family Cancer Research Building (HD-160)

Join us as we open Compliance Week with the first-ever UCSF Compliance Week Kick-Off Panel Discussion. The event will feature a panel of UCSF leaders discussing the current state of UCSF's Culture of Compliance. Learn more about what it means to have a Culture of Compliance and earn Compliance Week points for your attendance. Attendees are also entered into the 2016 Compliance Week Raffle. (Raffle winners must be present at the Compliance Fair to win)

Light refreshments will be provided immediately following the discussion.

The discussion will be streamed live on the web. (Link Available on 10/24/16)
